PRACTICE TEXT

The second grade classes traveled to two interesting places in our town this year. The first trip was to frostys ice cream factory, and the other trip was to summers retirement home. In some ways both field trips were alike. We loaded the bus early in the morning and listened to the teachers advice about behavior. We enjoyed each experience and learned things we would never have learned in our classroom. The two trips were also different. The frosty's factory tour began with a video of Frosty's history. Then we walked through several strips of heavy plastic and entered the factory. It was chilly! The machines made it difficult to hear our guide so we had to stay close to her. We watched cartons of ice cream floating by on a belt. It made our mouths water! Workers at the end of the belt packed the ice cream into boxes and loaded them onto special frostys ice cream trucks. These trucks were rolling freezers that would keep the ice cream cold as it was taken to grocery stores. We were almost screaming for ice cream. Thankfully, the tour ended with a delicious sample of each student's favorite flavor. summer's retirement Home invited us to sing to their residents. Each resident's smile and hug warmed our hearts.
